

The Old Vicarage Hotel & Restaurant, Worfield

The Old Vicarage Hotel is one of the AA's Top 200 Hotel with three Red Stars & three Food Rosettes. English Tourism awarded us Three Star Gold and we are featured in many other leading guides.

At the Old Vicarage Hotel we take our idyllic setting in a quiet and peaceful area of Shropshire & our training at some of the country's finest & most famous hotels as our starting point & then endeavour to guarantee that throughout your visit you'll experience a relaxed style that makes you feel at ease & yet never fails to exceed your expectations.

FALL IN LOVE WITH SHROPSHIRE

The same analogy applies to Shropshire. Despite being home to the Ironbridge Gorge - a World Heritage Site that is host to seven museums - and The Severn Valley Railway - one of the best known steam railways in Britain. Shropshire is a county that is quietly confident in its own unspoilt charm.

You couldn't possibly visit Shropshire without spending some time enjoying the simple pleasures of the glorious countryside. Walk along Wenlock Edge (which so famously inspired A. E. Housman), the Cleve Hills, the Long Mynd or Offas Dyke and you may not see another soul. Shropshire is a county that doesn't have to try too hard but none-the-less offers a friendly warmth that draws visitors back time and time again.

RESTAURANT

Shropshire & the Marches offer a plentiful supply of superb local produce that's full of flavour & guaranteed to inspire our chefs.

Our chef, Simon Diprose, achieved Michelin star status in the 1990's -one of the few chefs in the world to have achieved this highest accolade. He strives to ensure that our award winning meals are innovative without being gimmicky & are complimented by a wine list which has the ability to surprise in more ways than one; alongside the usual suspects you'll find the lesser known wines that offer exceptional value for money & an equally adventurous selection of wine by the glass. In the restaurant too we work hard to achieve a fine balance creating an environment that is perfect for a special occasion yet is friendly & relaxed.

BEDROOMS

Each of The Old Vicarage's Hotels individually designed suites is furnished with a plethora of antiques and nick knacks - carefully chosen to provide that critical balance between opulence and the feeling that here you can make yourself feel really at home. You'll find wooden games to help you relax and a generous decanter of sherry standing next to cut glasses to welcome you. Choose from rooms with a double jacuzzi, exposed beams or a room with its own patio area.
