House Recommendations

		Per Bottle (£)	175ml Glass (£)	250ml Glass (£)
White Wine
H1	Remi & Jérôme Sauvignon Blanc VdP d'Oc (France) Typical of the fresh, crisp style coming out of the region, this has bags of ripe, tropical fruit, plenty of refreshing acidity and a light mineral finish.	16.50	4.10	5.50
H2	Kreuznzhcher Kronenberg Kabinett, Nahe (Germany) Light and fruity wine from the valley of the Nahe. This has good body and well balanced sweetness.	17.50	4.40	5.85
H3	Cape Collection Chenin Blanc (S. Africa) From the Western cape – tropical guava flavours with hints of ripe passion fruit with a clean crisp finish.	13.50	3.50	4.50
H4	Pinot Grigio, San Antonia (Italy) En Vogue Italian showing excellent varietal character, crisp dry white with hints of peach and melon finished with almond notes.	15.60	3.90	5.20
Red Wine
H6	Remi & Jérôme Merlot, Vdp d'Oc (France) A soft fruity Merlot with flavours of plums and blackcurrants from vineyards close to the Mediterranean.	16.50	4.10	5.50
H7	Domaine Saint Sophie St. Cristol (France) From the specific quality area of Coteaux de Languedoc, 'Saint Cristol', this Syrah based wine demonstrates luscious warm and rounded berry fruits with a touch of spice.	17.50	4.40	5.85
H8	Cape Collection Pinotage (S. Africa) South Africa indigenous grape variety – warming chunky red with plum and raspberry notes backed by soft tannins.	13.50	3.50	4.50
H9	Rioja Azabache Tinto (Spain) Aromas of candied red and black fruit, very well integrated with soothing vanilla and toasted notes provided by the oak. Structured and well balanced with jammy berry fruit, toasted coffee and cocoa notes.	17.50	4.40	5.85
Rose
H11	Miguel Torres, Cabernet Sauvignon (Chile) Made from 100% Cabernet Sauvignon. Full of fresh fruit with great character. Expertly made by Torres.	19.95
Champagne
H12	Champagne Jean Moutardier Carte d'Or Brut This wine is aged for over two and a half years giving it an attractive off dry style – delicate and fragrant – an ideal aperitif.	39.50	9.00
H13	Champagne Jean Moutardier Rose Full flavoured with cassis notes and a deep red hue.	42.90
